

Meadows & Fields

Front-range Folk and Alt-Country

Meadows & Fields is an alt-country band hailing from Colorado's Front Range. Led by the soulful vocals and steady rhythm of Michael Meadows, the band also features Russell Brakefield on banjo, Travis Lawson on upright bass, and Crystal Chiu on fiddle. Focused on well-crafted originals and innovative arrangements of folk and alt-country favorites, Meadows & Fields brings a vibrant sound to the genre and a unique energy to live performances. The band is already making a name for itself in the local Colorado music scene, with a growing fan base and a string of performances at venues throughout the state. The band will bring their distinctive sound and infectious energy to a range of Colorado venues and festivals in 2024.
